Ensuring a Superior Experience for your Customers

It's no small undertaking to keep menus fresh, promotions up-to-date, and staff trained while balancing the demands of serving customers everyday. The challenge grows exponentially in a chain, whether you have 100 locations or 3,000.

RedPrairie's Execution Management...

- Improves the bottom-line through enhanced execution and optimized operating expenses.
- Communicates clearly identified priorities for employees at every level, alerting management when demands exceed available employee hours.
- Maximizes staff efficiency by streamlining and prioritizing work for overloaded site and district managers, freeing them up to spend more time where it's most needed.
- Provides a full view of site activities, compliance issues and performance.
- Enables standardization on best practices shared via a secure repository.

Our solution was developed to accelerate effective planning and execution for each of the above areas. By replacing frenetic best-guess management practices with management by exception, RedPrairie's Execution Management maximizes efficiencies across the enterprise. Real-time control and information ensure compliance, consistent execution, timely reporting and improved cost control.

"Task management should be perceived as the glue that helps to optimize an end-to-end workforce management business process."

Gale Daikoku,
